MURDERERS OF VOGELS NOW BEHIND BARS

Information Furnished Detectives By Miss Rosalie Rist, Sister of Mrs. F. L. Krieg, Aided Greatly in Capture.

Had it not been for the excellent information as furnished the Oakland police by Miss Rosalie Rist, sister of Mrs. F. L. Krieg, residing at 544 Eighteenth street, this city, it is probable that Albert E. Sells at the present time detained by the police of Los Angeles, might not have confessed to the Vogel murder.

Miss Rist who was employed at the home of the aged couple was able to furnish the police with a minute description of men who she had seen prowling about the place prior to the murder. Descriptions as furnished the police by Miss Rist caught in the detective drag net a half score or more of ex-convicts and notorious criminals, among which were Albert E. Sells who partly confessed to the Vogel murder in

CARMAN TAKES THE PLACE OF WILLIAMS

The season of kaleidoscope changes with the Richmond Daily News has not passed. There was another event that happened this week with that sheet, when Richard Williams, who was the last business manager was deposed and T. O. Carman has been installed in his place.

The reason for the change is not given out, and no announcement has been made of the change except that in this morning's issue, the name of Mr. Williams has been withdrawn.

The career of the paper has been one of many changes. It started out with eight pages, and finally was reduced to four.

On an average there has been a change in management about every two or three months.

Los Angeles last evening on the ground that leniency would be granted him.

In his confession Sells implicated a painter whose name he said he did not know. Sells' midnight confession marks the climax of a series of criminal admissions by him which have no parallel in police records.

$138,332,100 VALUE OF PRODUCTS 10,766 MEN EMPLOYED IN PLANTS

The resources of Contra Costa are very great and diversified. While the value of fruit, grain and stock produced is great the volume of manufacturing going on in Contra Costa County is little known, even to the best informed citizens, there never having been comprehensive statistics heretofore compiled. An exhaustive canvass of going concerns has recently been made and the results are for the first time made public in the following table, wherein is given the estimated value of the annual output of each industry, the annual payroll of each and the average number of employees, as follows:

DIVES MUST DOUSE THEIR GLIMS ON TIME

"It's a put up job to kill our business," is the statement alleged to have been made by Robert Webb, one of the proprietors of the Mascot saloon, following the serving of a warrant upon him by Constable Palmer of Martinez in which he is charged with having violated County Ordinance No. 123.

According to a statement as coming from the office of the District Attorney there are other resorts on the avenue which shall soon feel the heavy hand of the law unless they mend their ways.

That none may have a "comeback" in the matter should they be found running wide open, Constable Davis acting under instructions from District Attorney T. D. Johnston, yesterday served warnings on the following resorts to see that their doors were closed and all signs of life quitted at 1:00 o'clock a. m.: Sullivan's, Tavern, Stag, Fishers, Six Belis, Munday's, Thorntons, Timm's, Turtle, Park Inn, Grand Central and Rossi's.

At County Seat. Constable J. H. Gregory and G. A. Follett were county seat visitors Friday.

MRS. AMAZEEN SCARES AWAY NIGHT THIEF

Awakened From Her Sleep by Scratching of Outter on a Window Pane—Police at Work.

Aroused from her sleep by the scratching of a steel instrument on a front window, Mrs. G. G. Amazeen, residing at 611 Main street, rushed onto her front porch last evening to see the dark form of a burglar disappear in the direction of the Pullman car shops.

Being alone at the time Mrs. Amazeen fearing to return into the house lest the intruder might return, ran a distance of several blocks to a neighbor's where she notified the police.

An investigation by the police revealed the fact that the glass on a front window had been scratched by a glass outter and so deep had it been cut that its removal could easily have been accomplished. According to the police the alleged robbery of the home happened at 11:30 o'clock.

MANY TAKE IN THE BIG CUP RACES

The town was nearly deserted today and all on account of the Vanderbilt cup race that was run on the exposition grounds. Nearly every one in town, who could get away, and who could raise the price of a railway fare and admission, made the trip.

The race was a hummer, the weather was good, and all were well repaid for the time taken to see the big event. The race was not completed when the Record-Herald went to press.

Below is a partial list of those attracted to San Francisco today: View Speed Demons from Yacht.

Lee Jackson, employee of the Standard Oil refinery, and member of the Oakland Yacht Club, viewed the cup races today from one of the club's yacht anchored in the Exposition harbor.

"Billy" Smith, the genial "Havana" expert at the Fern Leaf cigar store, was among those who witnessed the race.

Harry Pulse, Frank Dinster, Chas. Pulse and Larkin Younce, all members of the Kremlin Club were spectators at the World's greatest auto classic.

Patrolman Oliver Wylie managed to grab enough sleep this morning, following his night vigil, so that he could scurry to the Fair grounds and watch the "tire burners" whizz around the course.

Richard Heinrich and Emil Esola, two high school students, were also in attendance at the final racing event of the year.

Exalted Ruler H. G. Biggs managed to break away from his routine work at the San Francisco Quarries to take in the big race.

Frank Gordon and Geo. Schramm, automobilists, and endowed with a fair knowledge of racing cars, were in attendance at the "gasoline classic."

A. Hall and City Auditor J. C. McVittie were among those who sat propped up in a grand stand watching the "speed fiends" flash past.

Earl Morgan, head of the draughting department at the Standard Oil refinery, together with James Stout, were also at the cup contest.

A. C. Chiles and Don Williams, ball fans, and members of Richmond lodge of Elks, who, on account of the crowd were unable to get near the track, claim that they could tell who the winner was by the exhaust from his machine.

Fred Lemoine, armed to the teeth with a "speed" Graflex, and wearing an imported "press" badge managed to snap some excellent pictures of the drivers as they roared past in their death teasing cars.

C. F. Stetson, connected with the city engineering force, laid aside his draughting instruments for the day and gave Barney Oldfield and the other boys the once over.

Joe Rose, connected with the Herbert F. Brown realty company, forgot about lots and acreage deals for the day, while he sniffed gasoline and castor oil fumes at the Exposition.

Dr. C. R. Blake, city health officer, banished all thought of war against the house fly, rats and other rodents while he gazed with intense excitement on the three mile Exposition course and its thirty-three participants.

A. H. Burnett, connected with the Pacific Gas and Electric company, viewed the Vanderbilt contest from a reserved seat in the Tower of Jewels.

Martin Kelly, realty dealer, forgot about the turnips raised on Turlock farms while he inhaled the esmoke from a "Colorado Claro" as the "speed kings" flashed by in their gruelling grind.

Earl Stratton, in a grand stand seat, held his breath on several occasions while the "racers" took "Purgatory Curve" on a wide open throttle.

Chauncey M. Brewer forgot electric lights for the day, and thought of gasoline tires and carburetors.

POLICE SEARCHING FOR MRS. S. A. KELLY

The police of this city have been asked to assist in the search for Mrs. A. M. Kelly who disappeared from her home in San Francisco on Monday night.

Ray Kelly, 15-year-old son, in a telephone message to the local department last evening stated that his mother had been employed at the Emporium in San Francisco for the past few months and that she had left the family home with the intention of visiting relatives.

CHRISTIAN SAYS HE'S NOT MARRIED

If an overly anxious reporter who tired of the accustomed police "stuff" and time worn "morgue" stories had inserted your name and address in the paper as having eloped with a pretty girl, the daughter of a Stege capitalist, and if you had known nothing of any such affair and were still single, don't you think that it would make you mad?

Well, it certainly brought the blood rushing to the head of Herman B. Christian, residing at 3535 Felton avenue, who, according to a story in a morning contemporary, is accused of having eloped with Miss Ruth Fallon, to Santa Rosa where they were married by Police Judge C. M. Collins, with Policeman Lindley acting as best man.

"There is nothing to it," exclaimed Christian, banging his hands together and "I intend to see that the morning paper publishes a proper retraction."

SUICIDE WILL BE BURIED TOMORROW

While Miss Anna Wilson is slowly recovering from the effects of the gunshot wound inflicted by John Fortado in Grabstein's store at Pittsburg, arrangements for the funeral of Fortado, who suicided are being made by his parents at Concord. The body of the unfortunate youth who blew out his brains when he found that Miss Wilson did not desire to marry him was held this morning from the family home in Concord.

Unless blood poisoning sets in, and for this Dr. Nicholson is carefully watching, the pretty saleswoman will be out in the course of a few weeks. The shock of the tragedy is gradually wearing off, although Mrs. Wilson was almost overcome by it when she first heard the news.

MUCH STREET AND SEWER WORK IS NOW UNDER WAY

With the good weather now with us, and every indication that it will continue for the remainder of the year, with the possibility of short spells of rain, the street contractors are busy, and a large number of men have been put to work on street improvements and sewer construction. City Engineer Chapman has prepared a list of the street work and sewer work now under contract and also under construction, and it makes a very formidable list. It totals up over $500,000.

The most important of the work is the Cutting boulevard work, and this broad street when completed will make a splendid outlet to the city.

The list of work in detail follows:

Official Paper of City of Richmond

THE CITY OF CONSTANTINOPLE

The fall of Constantinople is only a matter of a few days, perhaps of hours. The French and British fleets, more than forty warships strong, are forcing their way through the Dardanelles, that deep sea channel, nearly forty miles long, connecting the sea of Marmora with the Aegean, and separating Europe from Asia.

No other city in the world has been subjected to so many and spectacular sieges as Constantinople. Since it was rebuilt by Constantine the Great, in the year 328, it has been attacked, time and again, from the European or the Asiatic side, but never was captured except by the fourth crusaders in 1204, from revolting Greeks, and by the Turks under Mohammed II in 1453, who stormed it, after one of the most celebrated sieges in history.

Since the Russian empire was aroused from its slumber by Peter the Great, the dream of its rulers has been the incorporation into it of Constantinople, called always by the Russians Czargrad—Caesar's city.

Great Britain has indicated a willingness for Russia to realize her ambition for a warm water port. Sir Edward Grey so announced in an open session of parliament, and was cheered by the British peers when he did so.

And when the geographical positions of the Russian and the British empires are considered, one does not wonder at the attitude of Great Britain toward her powerful ally. While control of the Bosphorus, upon which the Turkish capital is located, leading from the Black to the Marmora sea, and of the Dardanelles, leading from the Marmora to the Aegean and thence to the Mediterranean, is all-important to the Russians, it does not mean much to Great Britain, for the Mediterranean into the Red sea and thence into the Indian and Pacific oceans through the Suez canal. Hence, Russia must be the friend of Great Britain so long as Britannia rules the waves.

With the fall of Constantinople the sultan will betake himself to Asia, and will be followed there by those Turks, who for nearly five hundred years, have been interlopers in Europe. When the war is over, the map makers and the historian will be busy for quite a while adjusting lines and peoples to new conditions.

Floating mines carry no emblem of nationality. They are the assassin who strikes out in the night when you are asleep and slays you. There is nothing decent, honorably or patriotic in a floating mine and especially is this true of mines which are sown on the high seas. It is the same thing as putting poison in your neighbor's well.

The proposed embargo of food-stuffs and the many other things produced in America which just now are of incalculable value to the belligerents of Europe, will probably have more to do with stopping the war over there than all the prayers for peace of a united clergy. It is the material things which count in a time like this and not the spiritual.

THE TIME FOR CAUTION

War tends to suck surrounding nations into its whirlpool. All were engulfed a century ago. Neutral nations nowadays are resisting more strongly the fatal attraction.

It is human nature for a man in a fight to try to array innocent bystanders on his side. That the same is true of nations is shown by the replies of both Great Britain and Germany. Each tells this country there will be no trouble with it if the United States only will make the other behave.

The war is none of our making, yet because of the desperate straights in which the belligerent nations are beginning to find themselves, each side would like to see this country involved in a quarrel with the other side.

We have the food supplies, we have unlimited financial resources, we have the factories and the mines and the raw materials that are urgently needed by every one of the ten belligerents. Is it any wonder, then, that both sides of this bloody controversy should endeavor, by fair means or foul, to gain the most powerful neutral nation as an ally?

It will take extraordinary vigilance upon our part to watch not only the fair means, but the more particularly the tricks and traps to embroil us, which great nations would be ashamed to use in times of peace, but which they would regard as legitimate at present.

It will be recalled that there is today a deep-seated suspicion that the Main was blown up in Havana harbor by the Cubans for the purpose of bringing on war with Spain. In the present situation under the guise of American citizenship a ship might be purchased, manned, loaded with conditional contraband and sent out for the very purpose of creating mischief between the United States and a belligerent. Suppose that such ship was sunk with those aboard. The question would be, who sunk her and what sunk her; a mine or a submarine or an internal explosion? If it were ascertained beyond question that it was a submarine, whose submarine was it? This is a time to "Remember the Main."

The Japanese administration of Korea had adopted a queer, but very effective method of stamping out disease due to the common fly. The Anglo-Saxon slogan of "Kill that fly" would probably not stimulate the imagination of a people which regards disease as inevitable, so the administration has hit on the idea of buying flies from the populace, and an illustration in the latest annual report on reforms and progress in Korea bears the enticing headline, "Purchasing flies from natives by government officials."

Herbert Kaufman, editor and author, whose editorials are widely read in the United States, is 37 years old today. He was born at Washington March 6, 1878, was graduated from Emerson Institute, Washington and Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore. While in college he was recognized for his oratorical and writing ability, and he made a notable success in early life as an editorial writer. He formed a syndicate, through which his editorials are furnished to a chain of newspapers. He is the American adviser of C. Arthur Pearson, the English magazine publisher, and the adviser of Frank Munsey in his magazine and newspaper work. He writes extensively for the magazines, and has published several books of poems. He has been twice married, his present wife Alta Rush Kaufman, formerly of Portland, Oregon. They make their home in Chicago.

Hon. Champ Clark, Speaker of the House of Representatives, veteran educator, lawyer and law maker, is 65 years old today. The fortunes of politics play some weird tricks, and great men are made and unmade in the game of politics. Champ Clark led on 27 ballots for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency in 1912, and held a clear majority on nine of the ballots. But fate tipped the balance, and the big-hearted man from Missouri bowed like a gentleman should even in disappointment, and took up duties fully as irksome and patriotic. Champ Clark has served as Speaker of the 62nd and 63rd Congresses, and is the choice for the speakership of the 64th Congress. In his youth he was hired out as a farm hand, became a clerk in a country store, edited a country newspaper, and studied law. That was in Kentucky where he was born March 7, 1850. After graduating from Kentucky University, Bethany College and Cincinnati Law School, he became at the age of 23 the president of Marshall College in West Virginia, the youngest college head in America. In 1875 he moved to Missouri, where he took up law practice and was prosecuting attorney. In 1889 he was sent to the legislature. He is the author of Missouri's anti-trust statute and the Missouri Australian ballot law. He was sent to the 53d Congress, and from the 55th to the 64th Congresses. He is extremely popular in Washington, and in the calls of Congress is respected by the men of all parties. His great sense of fairness in parliamentary matters, his democratic, big-hearted ways, and his pre-eminent good-fellowship have made him one of the best loved men in Washington.

COLDS

An up-to-date remedy for colds. That is what Peruna is. In successful use over 50 years.

Colds are caught in many ways: Illy ventilated rooms; rooms that have direct draughts; crowded rooms; damp houses; stuffy school rooms; offices illy heated.

A dose of Peruna at the right time, at the first symptom of cold, before the bones begin to ache, before the sore throat manifests itself, or the cough, or the discharge from the nose, just a dose or two of Peruna before these symptoms begin is generally sufficient. But after the cold is once established with the above symptoms prominent, a bottle of Peruna, or maybe two, will be necessary.

"For several years I have been troubled with colds at each change of season. I took Peruna and have not been troubled with the slightest cold this entire season." Mr. Harry Fisher, 1228 Mosher St., Baltimore, Md.

"I give the children Peruna if they have a cold, and it always relieves them." Mrs. J. D. Hayes, 1937 Druid Hill Ave., Baltimore, Md.

"When I feel a cold coming on I take a little Peruna, and it does me good." Mr. Charles A. Many, 13 Water St., Ossining, N. Y.

"No family should ever be without Peruna, for it is an unfailing cure for colds." Mrs. J. J. Jones, Farmington Springs, Ky.

MUSICAL COMEDY AT PANTAGES THIS WEEK

At the Oakland Pantages theatre for the week starting Sunday, March 7, the headliner will be the Whitney-McIntyre tabloid musical comedy company in "The Wrong Bird," probably one of the most elaborate acts in the musical comedy line that has ever been booked. The stage settings are novel, showing the interior of a taxidermist's shop, with its skins of polar bears, foxes, mink, otter and other fur-bearing animals; the costumes are elegant, bright and fresh; the chorus is composed of handsome girls, whose vivacity and youth are a distinct relief from some of the types seen on the stage. The music is tuneful and the songs are bright and snappy. Arthur Morse Moon is the principal comedian while Miss Wanda Lyon and Miss Louicme Compson are soloists with song and violin. The lyrics and music are both composed by Miss Margaret Whitney, a Salt Lake City girl, who also personally leads the orchestra. Balaban, the sensational mis-leading musical marvel is another headliner. Just who or what Balaban is the management refuses to divulge in advance, preferring to surprise the audience with the act. The third top liner will be Harry Cornell, Ethel Corley and company, remarkably fine players from the legitimate stage who are presenting their new dramalet entitled, "Service." The scene is laid in a swiftly moving express car attached to an Overland train. It is credited with being one of the most effective bits of realism yet produced in vaudeville. The plot of the piece is tremendously interesting and should prove a big hit with Oakland theatre goers. Other features on the bill will be Paul Nevins and Ruby Erwood in the season's hilarious fun hit, "The Coal Man and the Maid;" Raymond and Bell, man and woman in songs, dances and comedy patter; Argo, an Italian hatpist; Cummin and Seamon, English eccentric knockabout comedy acrobats and a two reel Keystone comedy motion picture.

McEWEN BROS. DESIRE TO UNLOAD

We welcome strangers and those who have no church home in the city.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The services at the Presbyterian church will be conducted by the Rev. Geo. C. Butterfield, the Synodical Superintendent of Sunday Schools. He is a "live wire" and should be given a good hearing. Dr. Gilchrist will not be here in the evening owing to a Revival that has sprung up among the Chinese of San Francisco and at which he is the preacher. The pastor will be in the pulpit. Sunday school and the Men's Bible class at 9:45; Junior C. E. at 3 o'clock an intermediate and Young People's at 6:45. The subject for the morning sermon by Dr. Butterfield is "The Mission the Church," while that in the evening by the pastor is "The Three Greatest Signals."

A welcome awaits you. Good music and plenty of it.

EVILS OF EXPERT WITNESSES AND CURE

That the community needs to be protected against "expert witnesses," and that genuine experts desire this reform as heartily as anyone else is declared by A. M. Kidd, Professor of Law in the University of California, in the March number of the California Law Review, the legal quarterly published by the students of the School of Jurisprudence.

Too often, he declares, charlatans falsely pose as experts. Only such experts are called in as the lawyers know will testify in favor of their side. Hence many real experts refuse to serve as witnesses, feeling that the methods of examination are incompatible with truth and dignity.

But the selection of experts by the judge himself, Professor Kidd feels a questionable remedy. "The less power a judge has to favor his friends by lucrative appointments," he declares, "the better able he is to perform his judicial duties." And this because judges are in politics, and because "unless a judge does politics he will not be a judge."

As a possible remedy he suggests that the medical societies, for instance, make up lists of competent experts from which the judge may select an expert who shall not be the retained witness of one side, but a real interpreter of scientific truth for both sides. Such a witness should not be barred from expressing opinions nor unduly limited by technical objections as to "hearsay."

Most important of all, he believes, is raising the standard of the legal profession and "creation of a public opinion that will drive from the courts the incompetent and the dishonest."

Other features of this March number of the University's "California Law Review" are articles by Professor William Carey Jones on "The School District," by Warren H. Pillsbury on desirable simplifications of procedure worked out in proceedings before the California Industrial Accident Commission, comment on recent cases in the courts, and the first announcement that three distinguished eastern jurists are to spend six weeks next June and July lecturing in law in the Summer Session of the University of California—Professor Samuel Williston of Harvard, an authority on contracts, Professor Raleigh Colston Minor of the University of Virginia, an expert in "Conflict Laws" between the legal systems of various states of countries, and Dr. Henry Hobart Goddard, director of the Department of Research at Vineland, N. J., whose particular interest in the subject is the

THE PRAISE CONTINUES

Everywhere We Hear Good Reports of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Richmond is no exception. Every section of the U. S. resounds with praise of Doan's Kidney Pills. Thirty thousand persons are giving testimony in their home newspapers. The sincerity of these witnesses, the fact that they live so near, is the best proof of the merit of Doan's. Hehe's a Richmond case:

"One of the family suffered from attacks of backache and often felt too sick and run down to do any housework," says Mrs. M. E. Stubbfield, of 534 Ripley Ave., Richmond. "Doan's Kidney Pills cured this case. Recently, I gave Doan's Kidney Pills to one of my relatives who had weak kidneys and couldn't control the kidney secretions. It wasn't long before this weakness went away."

Price 50¢, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Stubbfield recommends. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. advt.

VERNE FOWLER TO SERVE LIFE TERM

Vern W. Fowler, charged with having murdered William Fassett of San Francisco on the night of December 18th and who was thought to have had an accomplice "Guspie" Williams, a "dope" fiend formerly residing at the corner of 14th street and Bissell avenue, this city, was yesterday sentenced to a term of life imprisonment.

The killing of Fassett in his home aroused widespread attention. Three men masked with pillow slips, one of whom the police supposed to have been Fowler, and another who it was thought for a time might have been Williams, were placed under arrest and held for several weeks, with the result that Williams was finally turned loose while Fowler was held to answer.

1ST 1915 GAME TO BE PLAYED SUNDAY

The First street grounds which have been silent for the past four months will tomorrow afternoon ring with the shouts and hoarse cries of the fans and fanettes as they watch the Elbies amble through their first game of the season against the crackerjack Wieland team of San Francisco.

Last evening the boys went through a light practice at the grounds and ended in fine style, none having as yet become afflicted with "spavin" or "Charley horse."

But, fans, the feature of tomorrow's game will be the arguments which are just as sure to arise as darkness is to follow daylight. Imagine these celebrated baseball "nuts" in an argument and you have the European war laid down at your door step, "Louie" Lowenberg who "Hocks" the Kaiser, when he's broke, "Neely" O'Hara who is a royal subject of King George, "Brick" Devaux who can sip a wee bit of "Scotch" and toot a few airs on the "pipes" and Field Captain Ingraham who warbles "Hail Britannia."

Should the above mentioned baseball critics ever become bunched over the matter of a poor decision on the part of the indicator man, it would necessitate Chief of Police Walker calling out the reserves.

According to Manager "Billy" Luce, Mayor E. J. Garrard will toss the first ball over the plate while Herman Tuller, who "babbles" baseball with the oil industry, will be on the receiving end.

The game will be called at 2:30 o'clock at which time Umpires Hayes will make the official announcement concerning the batteries, the weather, the latest German victory and will then receive the plaudits of the crowd and anything else which they may have to offer.

R. A. M. SPEND EVENING AT WHIST

Royal Arch Masons and their friends enjoyed a very delightful evening in Pythian hall last night at which time whist and a short program proved to be the chief diversions, followed with the serving of dainty refreshments.

Mrs. J. N. Long was awarded first prize for the whist party, while Mrs. D. G. McGraw won the ladies' consolation prize; J. R. Miller was awarded the gents' first prize while Roy McCallum received the consolation prize.

The committee in charge of the affair was composed of Stanley Stokes, James Towers, Roy Fernald, C. E. Hopping and D. W. Baker.

EXPERTS ADVISE LIBERAL USE OF PAPERS

In an analysis which covered practically every phase of retail advertising and the various media used in the exploitation of merchandise sold in retail stores, William Lyle Cook, advertising manager of S. N. Wood & Co., declared that his experience proved that the daily newspaper is the most profitable medium in conveying the merchant's message to the public.

"It is doubtful," said Cook in his talk to the students at the University of California, "if anything created by man has such a powerful influence for the good of society or business—for the education and the elevation of the public as the bright, clean, newsy, honest newspaper that furnishes the commercial, social, political and educational news of the twenty-four hours preceding its publication. It is absolutely indispensable both to the business man and the intelligent housekeeper."

Among the various subjects discussed by Cook were—choice of a medium, use of several media at once, constant and seasonal advertising, nationally advertised goods, sales, their purpose and value, appeals to special classes of trade, special appeals suited to men, not suited to women, advertising men's goods to women, make up of newspaper ads and various ways of determining the value of newspapers for advertising.

INTERESTING FREE BIBLE LECTURES IN COLLEGE HALL

There are only four more lectures remaining of the series in God's plans and purposes concerning mankind, that are being given every Sunday at 3 P. M. in College Hall, 4th & Macdonald Ave.

The existing social and financial conditions that are world wide are causing people to think. As they see nation rising against nation and kingdom against kingdom (Matt. 24:7) many are turning to God's word to find out what it all means and marvelous to relate God's word tells us all about it.

Don't fail to hear the following lectures. Many of your doubts will be changed to certainty for "we have the prophetic word more confirmed, to which you do well, taking heed in your hearts, as to a light shining in a dark place, till the day of dawn, and the light brighter may arise. 2 Pet. 1:19 (Emphatic Diaglot).

SEVEN CARLOADS OF STEEL ARRIVE

Seven carloads of steel are at Martinez and seventeen more are on the way for the Petroleum Iron Works of Sharon, Pennsylvania, which will begin immediately the fulfillment of its contract for the erection of thirty tanks for the Shell company.

Superintendent Kane has been awaiting the arrival of material and getting his crew together for work. The seven cars of steel which have arrived are being protested by him and consequently they will not be taken to the site of the tanks until the controversy is settled.

The company intends to start with about fifty men and has scores of applications for positions. The warm weather has caused the company to desire to work and Kane stated that at the very latest he would have his crew busy by Monday.

HOP RIOTERS PLEAS HEARD BY GOVERNOR

Governor Johnson heard the application for pardon of Blackie Ford and Herman Suhr in his offices in the Mills Building in San Francisco yesterday.

These men are in the Folsom penitentiary, convicted of rioting on the Horst hop ranch, near Marysville, when District Attorney Maxwell, Deputy Sheriff Reardon and two other men were killed.

Andrew Gallagher and a member of other labor leaders argued that the convicted men should be given their liberty.

"I am going fully into this matter," said the governor. "If these men are innocent, they will be freed. If they are guilty they will stay where they are."

"CLEAN UP, SPADE AND DIG" IS THE SLOGAN

"Clean up, spade and dig" is the slogan selected by Oakland for the campaign toward a City Beautiful, plans for which have been approved by the Mayor and the City Council.

Ten thousand school children, organized some months ago as the Oakland Garden Soldiers, already have planted hundreds of thousands of scarlet geraniums along the principal residence streets of the city, and Mayor Mott now urges that the property owners fall into line and work with the children toward the consummation of the project.

In a letter issued to the public, the Mayor said: "Many plans for the entertainment and the pleasure of our guests are under way. Not the least important of these is the beautifying of the city and the adornment of its public places. To this particular end, there were organized several months ago thousands of school children into the Oakland Garden Soldiers. This large corps' special purpose was to provide for planting the main travelled thoroughfares with red geraniums. The project has been successfully carried to a point where several hundred thousand geranium plants, fully rooted, have been nurtured into growth by the children, who are now awaiting the signal to complete their work in this scheme of beautification.

"It now devolves upon the residents and property owners to do their part toward consummating the program. I am, therefore, urging your co-operation in that every resident along the main lines of travel shall clear the spaces in front of residences and stores between sidewalks and curbs, of weeds and rubbish, turn the soil and have this area ready not later than March 27 to receive the plants. Planting will be commenced on March 29, continuing until completed. It is most important that the soil shall be made ready at least two days before the setting of the geraniums shall have been started."

FAKE REAL ESTATE DEALERS GET CAUGHT

Through the efforts of the Commission of Immigration and Housing of California the federal grand jury has just returned indictments against Walter E. Schwarz and Ralph Schwarz, brothers, for using the United States mail to defraud. They swindled hundreds of immigrants throughout the United States by selling fake San Francisco property, which, in reality, proved to be wild, inaccessible, mountainous waste, two miles from Tobin station on the line of the Ocean Shore Railroad and fifteen miles south of San Francisco. This, according to the work planned by the commission, is only the beginning of a campaign against California land sharks.

The evidence on which the Schwarz brothers were indicted was gathered by employees of the Commission of Immigration and Housing who worked as selling agents for the company. These men were given instructions by Schwarz brothers to represent the brush grown wilderness as city property, much of the incriminating evidence being in letters written as selling instructions to the agents.

Most of the persons swindled were immigrants and for that reason the work of investigation and prosecution was undertaken by the commission. The first complaint was Gust Cosoulos, who bought two lots for $240. An agent from Schwarz brothers called on him in Washington, D. C., where he was living in a Greek colony, representing the lots to be city property, within a short distance of San Francisco's business center, and reached by street car for 5 cents. The agent displayed maps showing paved streets, concrete sidewalks and other public improvements. Cosoulos, when testifying, said that when he bought the lots he was a bit afraid he might get lost in the mazes of his metropolis.

Eventually he did get lost but not in city streets. It was among brush covered slopes and rocky gulches of Tobin Park. The place

RICHMOND CASE STRICKEN FROM CALENDAR

The suit of Mrs. Martha Partridge against the city of Richmond for $5,000 damages alleged to have been sustained when the city changed the grade in paving the street in front of her property on one of the west side hill streets, has been dropped from the calendar of the Superior Court.

City Attorney D. J. Hall was unable to say what the plans of the plaintiff is as he does not believe that Mrs. Partridge has abandoned her claims.

Visits Martinez.

City Superintendent of Schools W. T. Helms of Richmond was a Martinez visitor Friday.

proved to be a wilderness; an hour's ride from San Francisco; two uphill country miles from the railroad station; and the round-trip fare was seventy-five instead of ten cents. Tobin Park proved to be a natural park, a camping ground instead of town lots. One had to be resourceful as Joe Knowles, the nature man, to live there.

Tobin Park lots sold from $27.50 to $250 apiece, although the agents were cautioned not to sell for more than $50.00, as purchasers were not apt to make trouble if swindled out of comparatively small amounts. The agents who wanted to see the land before starting on their selling tour throughout the United States were advised not to by Schwarz brothers, who frankly admitted they had never seen the lots themselves. They thought the psychological effect would be better if the agents described the property without visiting it.

The date of the trial of Schwarz brothers has not yet been set.
